

Glossary

1. User – one who will use the alarms and/or the radio (could be more than one person).
2. Radio – device that uses frequencies to receive sound waves to play sound.
3. Alarm – device that plays a sound when a clock reaches a specified time. Must be turned off by a user.
4. Volume – Loudness of sound emitted by the alarm or radio.
5. Clock – device that displays the current time via a display.
6. Frequency – measurement of sound waves measured in Hertz (Hz).
- 7.